Quality in the Right Place

Expensive upholstery doesn't prove that a car excels in quality. The real quality of a car is determined by its chassis—its power plant, transmission, axles, etc. Both by laboratory tests and actual service tests, the different parts composing the Ford chassis have proven themselves superior to those used in other cars. Ford Vanadium steel has never been surpassed in quality and strength.

Dr. Michael Clark May Retire; He Will Support Conservatives.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 19.—Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, one of the best known figures in Canadian political life, has decided not to be a candidate in the general election. He has so written in a letter to G. W. Smith, chairman of the Red Deer federal Liberal association.

Dr. Clark has retired from politics, first on the grounds of ill health and second that he cannot support the Liberal party at the present time and does not see how, as a life long Liberal he can run as a conservative candidate. He announces in a letter that in the coming election "I shall give general support to the government which is unanimously in deadly earnest with the winning of the war in which the world's freedom and democracy is staked."

Dr. Clark's retirement from politics will create somewhat of a sensation in political circles when the facts are known. He is one of the ablest speakers and greatest orators in Canadian political life, and his retirement will be a great loss to parliament, where for the last nine years he has been an outstanding figure.

Strong efforts will undoubtedly be made to have the doctor reverse his decision and enter in the field as a war candidate for Red Deer.

If a union government is consummated he might be persuaded to reconsider. However, in any case, he will take an active part in the coming campaign and it is understood will speak in support of the return of the Borden administration on account of its stand on conscription and its vigorous prosecution of the war. He has recently been a recipient of innumerable requests through out Canada to appear on the platform for conscription.

Dr. Clark's letter to Mr. Smith announcing that he will not be a candidate is as follows: "I wrote to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and sent or telegraphed early last April informing them that I could not be a candidate in the next general election."

"These gentlemen took no action in the matter and I decided myself to leave things in abeyance until after the provincial elections for obvious reasons."

"The main grounds of my decision in April were that my health was suffering from the ry and overwork, and that the absence of three sons on the firing line made it imperative that I should look after personally my increasing farming interests. My health, I am glad to say, is much better at the moment, but not to justify an exposure to the strenuous term of another parliament, so I now write to you as chairman of the Red Deer federal Liberal association, informing you of and confirming my April decision.

"On public grounds I had some hesitation as to my course. But the certainty of a bitter party fight makes the ground clearer. A party led by the province of Quebec cannot possibly give itself to the energetic prosecution of the war any more than a party dominated by some of the strongest eastern corporations and protectionist interests can give the country any real Liberal reforms. Such is accurately what remains of the liberal party today."

"On the other hand, as a life-long Liberal, I find unsurmountable objections to running under what must be mainly Conservative auspices. As a private citizen, however, in the coming fight, I shall do exactly what I have been doing for the past two years, viz., without compromising a single Liberal principle, I shall give a general support to the government which is unanimously in deadly earnest about the winning of a war in which the world's freedom and democracy are at stake."

"Until the end of my line I shall reflect with pleasure and gratitude upon the confidence that has been extended to me by the electors of Red Deer riding from glad to be able to claim on my own part that in nine years of assiduous service I have followed absolutely my conviction as to what was for the riding good of Canada and have been indifferent in any shape or form with kind personal regards to my dear Mr. Smith, yours very truly MICHAEL CLARK."

Welliver is the Liberal Choice for This Riding

R. B. Welliver, of Red Deer, the liberal candidate who gave Mr. Edward Michener such a close run in the recent Provincial election, is being petitioned by the Liberals of the Red Deer riding to accept the nomination as their standard bearer in the coming general election. The Liberals are making a very good choice. Mr. Welliver is a strong man in the southern portion of the constituency, is a first class organizer, and has the confidence of all who have worked with him in previous campaigns. He is the only available man the Liberals have who could be expected to put up a strong fight.

Wittenburg News

Mr. Wellington Cumberland left for a visit to see his son who is down in Tuxford, Sask.

Mr. M. L. Frizzell received the sad news of the death of his brother in Montana.

Cutting has started in our valley the oat crop is fair, but the barley is nearly all destroyed by the frost.

Mr. Elwin Cumberland is making several trips to Rimley in his new automobile with a faint heart, but a good will; we all wish Elwin success with his new horse.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing in these parts once more. Mr. H. J. Jacobs made a business trip to Calgary.

Referendum a Great Blunder

"That a blunder was made in ever submitting the conscription issue to the people must now be readily accepted by all. A nation, in seeking such powers as that sought by the federal parliament should have taken counsel of its braves, of its fighting men only. It should have been a question of men of military age only, and put in another form. Instead of that it was decided by the women's vote, and the vote of old men and women, frightened by the tales put up by the unscrupulous. La-orites who didn't hesitate to put their great organization to work to accomplish the downfall of those above them in the political world not for the sake of principle, but for the sake of office. The looter and shirker only too ready to follow their lead, and they, together with those who studied only their own short-sighted, selfish ends, gave them the victory for the time being."

The Morning Herald, Sydney, Australia.

A Very Good Beginning

The Toronto Star may yet in its own peculiar way neutralize this by criticism and denunciation, but this is what it said on August 2nd of the Government's railway programme:

"As an advocate of public ownership, The Star welcomes the announcement that the Canadian Northern is to be taken over by the country, and congratulates the government upon its courage. The details will, of course, require consideration, and the Government's scheme may require to be modified. But it is on the right track and it is going a long way. The country acquires nearly ten thousand miles of railway, steamships, express company and a telegraph company. In all these there are great possibilities of public service. The nature of the service will depend upon the energy of the government or whatever instrument it may create. But advocates of public ownership, even if they would have preferred to see the whole railway system taken into the scheme must rejoice that a very substantial measure is introduced, substantial progress made, and a reasonable hope of further development of a sound policy. It is a good beginning."

Here's a Brave Man

At an anti-conscription meeting in Montreal on August 6th, Ald. Lamarr, Papineau ward, after stating that Quebec had done its duty in the war more than had Ontario, complained that since he had taken the stand against conscription and had held meetings in front of his store, his English customers and electors threatened him, and said that if he ran again they would all vote against him, but he had told them that they could stay at home if they were not satisfied. A voice from the crowd told him that he could rely on the French-Canadians. Talking of the Orangemen of Ontario, he said he would be glad to meet them if they were brave enough to come here.

"When the solemn hour comes" he said, "I will be among you to give courage to the young men, to the fathers of families, and to the mothers. I will be ready to go with you against conscription."

Press Report of Meeting.

The London newspapers are practically unanimous in their praise of former Premier Asquith for the stand which he took in the discussion raised by Mr. Henderson's resignation from the Cabinet. It was a most critical situation. If he had acted differently, they agree, he could have overthrown Lloyd-George's government. A small man would have sought revenge for having been ousted from power. But Asquith is not that kind of politician and today the people of all Allied countries breathe more easily as a result. How different things might have been in Canada if we had had a little more of the Asquith style of parliamentary opposition at Ottawa.

THE WRECKERS

In most conventions there arises up one outstanding man who, though not dominating, is the strong force in the Convention. This monster convention was in no way different from other conventions in this respect. If you ask any delegate to name the man he will answer without hesitation, that the outstanding figure in this convention was Arthur Sifton, premier of Alberta.

The above quotation is from a news report which appeared in the Morning Albertan after its Editor had returned from acting as a delegate to the western Liberal convention at Winnipeg last week. Although it does not say so in so many words (in fact it modestly asserts that the premier of Alberta did not dominate the convention), our contemporary thus leaves with its readers the impression that Hon. A. L. Sifton was the man who was most largely responsible for the resolutions passed, and the policy shaped, for the official Liberal party of Western Canada at the Winnipeg gathering.

The Saskatchewan Phoenix, also a Liberal paper, confirms the statement of the Albertan in regard to the control exercised over the convention by the delegation from this province, led by the Hon. Mr. Sifton. But the language used by the Phoenix somewhat dims the halo which the editor of the Calgary paper throws around the head of the premier.

"The Alberta Liberal Delegation," it says, "has been the controlling element of the gathering. The failure of the pro-conscription element to insert the words suggested by J. G. Turcill, 'by compulsion, if necessary,' must be laid at the door of Alberta and B.C. Liberals. Loyal as Liberals here were to the win-the-war resolution, they could find no better way out of their difficulty than by compromising for the sake of unanimity."

And here is another Liberal view which still further dims our premier's halo: At a Winnipeg hotel, on Thursday night, following the close of the convention, a photographer was offering for sale a group picture of the Alberta delegates. "I'll buy one," said a prominent Manitoba Liberal, with much bitterness, "if you'll put 'The Wreckers' over the top of all the pictures you sell."

It is no wonder then that the Liberals of South Winnipeg are taking action to disavow the work of the convention. Being closest to the scene, they are the first to realize the fact that they have been betrayed, sold in a political bargain of the basest sort. And if there is left in the rank and file of the Liberal party of Alberta any of that sturdy independence which used to be its greatest asset in all parts of Canada, they will not be long in following the example of their Manitoba colleagues.

New Map Issued

In these war days, when the question of the Canadian grain supply is so much in the public mind, when the western crop has become a vital factor in the national life of Canada and a rigid supervision is being exercised by the Dominion Government over the disposal of our wheat, it is perhaps important that the extent and location of the many granaries of the Prairie Provinces should be thoroughly known and appreciated by the general public, as well as by those more directly interested.

A new edition of an official publication of the government, which will tend to effect this purpose has been issued by the Natural Resources Intelligence branch of the Department of Interior, Ottawa. This consists of a map of the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta showing the position of each city or town containing one or more grain elevators.

The three great transcontinental railways the Canadian Pacific Ry., Grand Trunk Pacific Ry. and the Canadian Northern Railway, are indicated by blue, red and green lines, respectively, while under the name of each point, the extent of its elevator capacity is given in bushels. It is a most timely and useful publication and copies may be obtained gratis, on application at the Superintendent, Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamlike sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. Free from harmful drugs.

DELCO-LIGHT

For the first time electric light and power are available to anyone—anywhere. Heretofore, the benefits of electricity have been confined to those who live in the larger towns and cities.

Now Delco-Light makes electric current universally available.

Delco-Light is today furnishing thousands of farm-houses with brilliant, convenient, safe and economical light.

It is furnishing power to operate pumps, washing machines, churns, cream separators, milking machines, vacuum cleaners, etc.

It is lighting country churches, stores and public halls.

It is furnishing light and power to summer homes and camps, to houseboats and yachts, etc.

Delco-Light is a complete electric plant—the engine and dynamo in one compact unit, combined with a set of specially built and wonderfully efficient batteries for the storing of current. The plant is so simple a child can care for it, and so economical that it actually pays for itself in time and labor saved. It operates on either kerosene, gasoline or natural gas.

Are We Quitters ?

The use of the phrase "Win the war," in connection with the effort being made in Canada to create a union government is liable to lead to a misconception of the aims of those who are striving for that end. No Canadian is so egotistical as to believe that if Canada were to stop sending troops to the front the cause of the Allies would be lost, and it was never intended that the phrase should be interpreted in that sense.

The Allies will win the war even though Canada withdraws from the conflict at once. The point, however, is does Canada want the war to be won without her assistance? Are we willing to withdraw now and leave the victory to those who have been our companions-in-arms from the commencement to the finish? Are we as a nation satisfied to have history record us as quitters in the great conflict? Are we satisfied to desert between three and four hundred thousand of our fellow citizens who are now at the front depending upon us to back them up in every way till the end?

Voluntary enlistment will never keep the ranks filled. Those who advocate its further trial are either ignorant of the situation or are desigendly trying to delay compulsory service in the hope that something may happen meanwhile to make it unnecessary. Canada entered the war resolved to stay in it to the limit of her powers of men and means until victory came. That is what is meant by the war movement. The issue is a simple one. Do we quit or do we continue as we began? If we men and means. Whether they realize it or not, those who oppose conscription are advocating a quitting policy. Are you a quitter?

What Happened at Winnipeg

Everyone at Winnipeg knew that the most interesting part of the convention was not being held in the main auditorium but in the rooms where the resolutions committee was meeting. We are now learning by scraps what happened there.

The Calgary Albertan, whose editor is Mr. W. M. Davidson, M. L. A., makes an interesting contribution to the inside story of the affair. It tells us that the delegates who wished national government and conscription came from Manitoba and Saskatchewan along with "a very small majority of Albertans, while British Columbia seemed to have none who were not orthodox pro-Laurierites."

The first electrically charged resolution, says the Albertan, was introduced by C. W. Cross, which condemned Borden in vigorous sweeping language, endorsing Laurier. It was no statesmanlike utterance, it was without dignity, extreme and immature, but it had some supporters.

After hours of debate, the account continues, common ground was found, upon a resolution expressing admiration of the work of the eminent statesman (Laurier) expressing confidence in his sincerity, hoping that he would be returned to carry out the policy laid down by the Liberal party but in no way endorsing his leadership. This was satisfactory to Frank Oliver at the one end and Dr. Neely and W. A. Buchanan at the other.

However, all the Laurierites came away from the convention with the idea that Laurier had been endorsed and have been so informing the public ever since. The more important of the subsequent speeches could have no other meaning than that Laurier had been recognized as the leader of the convention. Hon. J. A. Calder told the delegates that their choice was simply between Borden and Laurier. Premier Norris said, what he wanted was a national government under Sir Wilfrid after he had been returned by the electors to power. Sir Wilfrid himself, judging by the sunny telegram, which Mr. Oliver read to the convention, had no doubt that the convention was behind him.

However much the anti-Laurierites may argue from the text of the resolution they have been put in an impossible position by the use to which their opponents immediately the resolution was passed, began to make use of it. Feeling as they did about the old leader, there was no excuse for their agreeing to have the convention "record its admiration of the life and work of the greatest of all Canadians" or to praise his "matchless statesmanship."

That is not the language which those who disagree with Laurier on the present vital issue have any right to use. The most important part of his "life and work" at the moment is that covered by the last three months.

It would have been much better for them to have allowed Mr. Cross to have his way even though his resolution was without dignity, extreme and immature and then to have fought it out on the floor of the convention. If they had they might have won there. Mr. Laurier's course was warmly approved by many delegates, and it was only the cracking of the whip by Mr. Sifton which prevented a large number from supporting the member for Assiniboia.

If on the two main resolutions those who in the committee had supported conscription and were opposed to Laurier's leadership had shown the courage of their convictions, that Mr. Laurier did, the vote would have been very different.

It is true that the split in the convention would have been more marked if they had done so, but that would have been infinitely better in the long run for the Liberal party and for the country than to have things end as they did.

NO SHAME LEFT IN NOT EXISTING

Montreal, Aug. 15.—Dr. Des Lauriers, a strong anti-conscriptionist, who has been almost officially accepted as Liberal candidate in St. Marys (Montreal), replacing Mayor Mederic Martin, who will not run for federal honors there again, at an anti-conscription meeting in the east end last night had this to say: "We have no responsibility in this war, and there is no shame therefore, to stop enrolment, even voluntary enrolment."

Those who accused French Canadians of being cowards and slackers are, he said, not Canadians. "I do not think that this conscription bill will be imposed in this country. Take my word, and you will see if it is not true."

The traction engine was made to grip. So was Dunlop Traction Tread. Nothing has yet taken the place of the traction engine for long continuous service. We don't think any other tire will ever take the place of Dunlop Traction Tread for the same function.

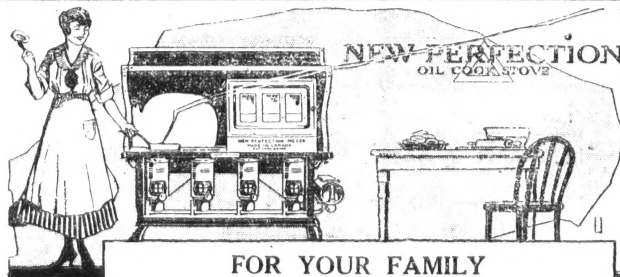

In a certain sense, Dunlop Traction Tread is larger than Canada. "Traction" fame is limitless. Men have written from various portions of the world seeking the agency.

"Traction" holds the Canadian transcontinental tire record; has never failed as a skid-resister; made it possible for punctures to be a forgotten evil; drove out the dust nuisance; made automobile driving by women more general; gave men all over the country a new idea of mileage.

In short, Dunlop Traction Tread has popularized motoring; and, for the first time in the history of the motor car, has made Safety a certainty.

It is a more powerful car than its predecessor, and represents greatly enhanced values, with but a nominal increase in price to cover the increased size and additional features. This McLaughlin model has more actual power and more proportional power than any car of its size—one H.P. to every 54 lbs. of weight. Gasoline consumption is very low, and cases are numerous where owners secured upwards of 28 miles on a gallon of gasoline. Let us demonstrate this car to you.

It is sincerely to be hoped that Dr. Clark, M. P., does not really intend to retire from politics, as is stated from Ottawa. It is inconceivable that those who hoisted his name at Winnipeg are representative of the Liberals of Red Deer. The declarations of newspapers like the Red Deer Advocate and Calgary Albertan are a better guide. The conservatives of the riding have given evidence of their appreciation of his course. The fight between him and a Laurier-Oliver-Cross Liberal would be an interesting one. If it should result in anything but Dr. Clark's triumphant return the constituency would be disgraced for all time.

The collectors for the Arnotville and Spruceville Y. M. C. A. fund auction sale will be around in a few days, and all desirous of contributing to this worthy cause should look up what they feel like entering for the sale. There is no compulsion about giving but all are expected to do the best they can for the boys at the front.

It is good to know that after all there is to be no very great shortage of harvest help in the west this year. The Authorities did well in taking hold of the question early and making their dispositions. To have neglected it when grain is so badly needed by Britain and her allies would have been a crime.

Mr. Lloyd George's prediction in regard to submarine losses has been verified by the decline in sinkings for several weeks past. This is one of the most encouraging phases of the war situation now. If the Germans can do no more damage than they are doing in the long summer days when they have a maximum of light and visibility, it is evident that the menace is not so great as was feared earlier in the year.

The feature at the Rex on Thursday evening next is a new Bluebird production "The Man Who Took a Chance," featuring Franklin Farnum and Agnes Vernon. It is an intensely interesting drama, and you will do well not to miss it.

The Manitoba Free Press, which most people will admit is something of an expert in its knowledge of politics says "The Liberals of Western Canada, who have given their blood and treasure to this great cause, whose homes are desolate by the sacrifices of the war, are to do their (support Sir Wilfrid Laurier) in order that ambitious gentlemen in Edmonton and Vancouver may recover or secure certain jobs that are attractive to them. But of course, the Liberal convention did not play politics."

When prohibition takes effect in the neighboring province of British Columbia the last refuge of the "wet" west of the Ottawa river will be no more.

The double-barrelled political game has already started. In the west, Liberal leaders say the Winnipeg resolution means con scription. In Quebec a Liberal newspaper declares emphatically that it does not. The situation is working out as The Globe predicted it would.

Markerville. E. J. Wyatt and family visited friends in Lacombe

Blackfalds News

The Blackfalds branch of the Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hill at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 1st. Subject for discussion, "Co-Operation between home and school." Miss Hill, leader.
A full attendance is desired.

Two emaciated steers were seen wandering the streets, having painted on their sides in large white letters the significant words "I am hungry" and "Feed Me." Frank Stephens on the good samarian, took them in and gave them a generous feed of hay and oats.

Miss Mary Fargwell was successful in passing grade VIII exam, and Miss W. H. Hill was successful in passing from Grade IX to X.

Crops generally are good in this district. P. McLennan has a field of sixty acres of timothy which yielded over two tons to the acre.

The Blackfalds creamery, under the management of G. Martin, is taking in large quantities of cream, and the place begins to look like old times.

J. G. McCullough, J. Atsinger, J. Fay and G. P. Burns have each erected a spacious barn this year, increasing in a measure the prosperity of the district.

Gull Lake Items

The bonfire given as a farewell to the returned soldiers who were staying at Mr. Emery's cottage was a great success everyone having a good time. A good program was rendered by local talent. Thanks is due to Mr. L. T.
Craig for procuring the wood and putting up the fire.

Messrs. R. Boyles, R. Olson, H. Fisher, Mr. Kerr, Mr. and Mr. McGuire, and Miss Boyles, were among those who spent the week end at the lake.

Doctor Price, Mrs. and Miss Seymour of Edmonton and Miss Lundy were also week end visitors at the lake.

The weather never was better suited for a vacation at the lake than it is at present.

A number of Ponoka people spent Sunday at the lake, over ten auto loads in all.

Boats and bathing suits can be hired at a very reasonable price at the lake and the hotel accommodation is all that can be expected. There is no better place to spend your week end and holidays.

Mrs. Clyde McDonald and family (of Edmonton) are spending the month at the lake.

The dances on Wed. and Sat. are still as popular as ever, and a record crowd attended the one on Sat. last.

A trip on the Motor Launch is one of the main events at the lake. It is worth coming to the lake for.
